forced to commit—or attempt to commit—crimes which revolt his true self, and to watch helplessly while the greatest of human emotions—love—is twisted into evil forms.

The episode ends, but not the tale for as long as men and women live there will be dark shadows.

The forces of good and evil battle for the souls—and the lives of men and women in this View-Master version of ABC's popular television serial—Dark Shadows.

Within the great house of Collinwood an unspeakably evil experiment hatched in another world is being conducted. Upon its success or failure depend the lives, the sanity, and the very souls of those cast in the role of victims as well as those guilty of the ultimate blasphemy—usurping the role of the Creator.

Most tragic of the victims is Barnabas Collins, a man of good will
